

LAJUANA BRADLEY JOINS CAPE REY CARLSBAD, A HILTON RESORT, AND HILTON GARDEN INN CARLSBAD AS NEW AREA HUMAN RESOURCES DIRECTOR

Carlsbad, Calif. (October 25, 2017) - Cape Rey Carlsbad, a Hilton Resort, and its neighboring sister property, the Hilton Garden Inn Carlsbad Beach, welcome Lajuana Bradley to their respective teams as the new Area Human Resources Director. In her executive role, Bradley will oversee human resources management for the two seaside properties.

Bradley, a Chicago native, brings close to 20 years of human resource experience to her new role in Carlsbad, a coastal community nestled in the northern region of San Diego county. Previously, she has held human resources positions at Hilton San Diego Gaslamp, Hilton San Diego and Holiday Inn San Diego, Zoo Area. Throughout her career, she has been awarded numerous times with executive employee awards and recognitions for her thoughtful, empowering approach to human resources.

In her new position with Cape Rey Carlsbad and Hilton Garden Inn Carlsbad Beach, Bradley will plan, develop, coordinate and direct the human resource functions at both hotels to attract, retain, develop, and coach team members. She will also oversee short and long-term planning and the daily operations for the human resources department and participate in management as a member of the Hotel Executive Committee. Further, Bradley will be responsible for team member relations activities, overseeing budgets and all employee relations and labor-related matters.
